You moved public sentiment

The pulpit & press & clubs. - Chalmers

Formerly the stimp

You leader, educator - ought to be careful market. Brought to our door every morning or eve. the doings of the world.

No greater enterprise

Napoleon said, "A journalist is a grumbler, a censorer, a giver of advice, a regent of sovereigns, a tutor of nations. From hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a thousand bayonets"

advocate - good morals.

Yours with the pulpit ^{Sunday} & scholars & public schools guardian of our ^{republic} of our young people.

Be courteous to one another.

There is room for all.

Be not jealous of the other fellow - He will live - so will you if you are decent & deserve -

Read the Constitution to Pat

You will be partisans

Stand up for your convictions

Be clear and fair - Give to each the same right without impugning motives.

Be fair to men in public life do not create in minds of our young men that every public official corrupt - has his price.

Condemn whatever & whosoever may be wrong - But be as a judge - Have good reason for your judgment -

The press by its too willing disposition to attack public men or men in public life has kept out some best men - highminded honorable patriotic men

Remember exceptions as was said of Franklin
He was a journeyman printer who did not drink, a philosopher who wrote common sense, and an office holder who did not steal.

Disappointment

Give a little advice

Let

Make your news items accord with facts, as nearly as possible - difficult do not try to be sensational

Be American - True to principles of our Country. - Free speech, free schools free religion, free press.

Always defend principles of our Republic.
Now especially be true Americans.
Steady the thought of our people -

Be patriotic -

Defend our schools and all our institutions
